

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
AT SEATTLE

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,) CASE NO. MJ 15-580 Plaintiff,)
v.) DETENTION ORDER
JOSE ANGULO-CARRIZOSA,) Defendant.)

)

Offenses charged:

Defendant is charged in three of the four counts of the complaint:

1. Conspiracy to Distribute Cocaine, 500+ grams.
Potential imprisonment: 5 years minimum, 40 years maximum
2. Possession of cocaine with intent to Distribute, 500+ grams.
Potential imprisonment: 5 years minimum, 40 years maximum
3. Possession of a firearm in furtherance of a drug trafficking offense. Potential imprisonment: 5 years minimum; maximum life; consecutive to other sentences.

Date of Detention Hearing: December 23, 2015.

The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and

01 based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth,
02 finds that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will
03 reasonably assure the safety of other persons and the community, or defendant's future
04 appearances.

05 FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

06 (1) The Indictment charges defendant with three controlled substances offenses, each of 07 which carries a maximum penalty in excess of ten years of imprisonment. There is
08 therefore a rebuttable presumption of detention. Although defendant, and the Pretrial
09 Services reports present information in support of release, the court is nevertheless
10 required to give some weight to the presumption. The court finds that the information
11 in support of proposed release does not effectively rebut the presumption.

12 (2) As outlined in the affidavit supporting the complaint, defendant participated in the
13 display and attempted sale of three kilos of cocaine to a person who turned out to be a
14 confidential informant. He was also present during the negotiations for the possible
15 sale of 40-50 kilos of cocaine to the same person, at a price of $37,000 per kilo.

16 (3) During these discussions, defendant possessed a Ruger pistol, which was loaded and 17 had a round in the chamber. Defendant has admitted to law enforcement that he was 18 hired to provide armed security to protect the cocaine dealers. He was to receive 19 $3,000 to $4,000 for providing this protection.

20 (4) Defendant's participation in these attempted sales of very large quantities of cocaine,
21 and his use of a loaded firearm, each raise very serious concerns about the danger
22 defendant would pose to other persons and the community if he were released.

01 (5) Defendant asserts he had permit to carry a concealed weapon. The court finds this
02 neither presents a defense of any kind, nor mitigates the culpability of defendant's
03 conduct. A concealed weapons permit does not authorize defendant to carry a loaded
04 pistol as security for a felony drug transaction. Defendant also had another weapon in 05 his car. Both weapons are now in possession of law enforcement agents.

06 (6) If convicted of the charges in the complaint, defendant faces a mandatory minimum
07 sentence of at least ten years. The maximum potential sentence is considerably higher.
08 This provides defendant a very substantial incentive to flee, if released. This far
09 outweighs any incentive to remain by reason of a common-law marriage.

10 (7) Defendant has been sporadically employed. He expects he will be discharged from his
11 current job, as a result of his arrest in this case. He is therefore will be unemployed;
12 and his employment situation will provide no incentive for him to remain in the area.

13 (8) Defendant claims to have been born in the United States. But he has spent a
14 significant portion of his life in Mexico, and has what Pretrial Services has described
15 as "strong familial and residential ties to Mexico."

16 (9) Defendant therefore presents a danger to other persons and the community, and a
17 significant risk of non-appearance. There are no conditions of release he can meet
18 which would adequately address these risks.

19 It is therefore ORDERED:

20 1. Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the 21 Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent
22 practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody

01 pending appeal;

02 2. Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with

03 counsel;

04 3. On order of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the

05 person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver

06 the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in

07 connection with a court proceeding;

08 4. The Clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel

09 for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial

10 Services Officer.

11 DATED this 23rd day of December, 2015.

12 s/ John L. Weinberg
13 United States Magistrate Judge
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21
22